Miss Jessie Huff, school teacher, was last Saturday appointed postmistress at Des Arc to succeed W. E. McKee.

Recorder Hawkins Tuesday issued a marriage license to Walter Gay Pruitt of Ironton and Mae Davis of Arcadia.

H. L. Bell, local dealer, sold Chevrolet cars the past week to Ollie Fox and T. A. Swearingen, the restaurant man.

We have had several frosts the past week but it is said that the fruit, aside from the grapes, has not been greatly injured.

The sufferers in the recent cyclone in the western part of the county have appealed to the local Red Cross for assistance.

All persons having soda cases belonging to Arcadia Valley Bottling Company please phone H. M. Collins, Arcadia, immediately.

Mrs. Lena Finnimore is opening a restaurant in the office building of Louis Miller, Arcadia. Her name guarantees it to be first-class.

George Evans is visiting the home folks. He will assist his father, J. B. Evans, in the erection of a bungalow on the site of their recently burned dwelling.

Three pusher crews are now at work at Arcadia. On account of the high water many trains that would ordinarily go over the Illinois track are coming this way.

Mrs. J. S. O'Neal left Monday for Boonville, Mo., where she goes to visit her son, Howard O'Neal, and wife. She was accompanied as far as St. Louis by her husband.—Poplar Bluff Republican.

The REGISTER this week publishes in pamphlet form the financial statement of Iron county for the year ending January 31, 1922. It is a complete record of the financial transactions of the county for the year.

The county court last Saturday adjudged Mrs. Bertha Lonas of unsound mind and ordered her sent to the asylum at Farmington. Mrs. Lonas' home is near Annapolis, but the family recently removed to Heronlanum in Jefferson county from where she was brought to Ironton by Sheriff Marshall.

Men's all wool three-piece Blue Serge Suits for $18.00 at Lopez Store Co.

Geo. A. Left, it is stated, has accepted a position as guard at the penitentiary at Jefferson City. He held a similar job under the Hadley administration. His brother, P. A. Left, also has a position as guard.

A big bunch of gypsies, who had been camped at the artesian well at Pilot Knob for several days, "moved on" last Thursday at the suggestion of Sheriff Marshall. They are now said to be at Iron Mountain.

Bristol French, postmaster at Piedmont, has resigned, and an examination to fill the vacancy has been called for May 13. Mr. French has a record as a splendid postmaster and his term does not expire for two years.

The Pilot Knob schools closed last Friday. A program was rendered Thursday night and the eighth grade graduating exercises occurred Friday night. All acquitted themselves very happily. There were seven graduates.

We confess that we know little or nothing about the matter, and we certainly do not want to be classed as a "knocker," but it surely looks to us like the surveyors are putting in an awful lot of time on the proposed highway.

Louis R. Miller expects soon to employ a force of men for the installation of a waterworks system to be in readiness for the Methodist Assembly. The concrete tank was made last fall. The water will be pumped from Bethesda spring in Arcadia.

It is announced that the Wayne-Iron base ball league will be reorganized for the present season. Clubs from the following towns are expected to participate: Annapolis, Des Arc, Piedmont, Leeper, Williamsville and Greenville.

The REGISTER was in error last week in stating that under a recent ruling of the Supreme Court the salary of the Prosecuting Attorney of Iron county would be $1800 a year; we should have said $1200. The salary is based on the census of the county.

Greenville Sun: "Rev. J. T. Ford of Pilot Knob passed through here Monday on his way to Hiram and other points on the east side of the county. Rev. Ford has bought the Byrd Vannoy farm, near Silva, and expects to move on to the place in September."

The following stores in the valley will give away votes on the Hope Chest—one vote for each 50 cents cash purchase or paid on account: Lopez Store Co., Gay & Kindell, Signer & Signer, S. J. Taal, Coddling & Son, R. T. White, J. E. Grandhomme, M. Nichols, Geo. Allers.

James A. Smith, who lives on Marble Creek about six miles south of Ironton, had the misfortune to be run over by a wagon on his farm Thursday. At first it was feared Mr. Smith had suffered serious injury but he has since improved greatly and it is hoped that there will be no bad after effects because of the accident.

For Sale—My brick residence of nine rooms and bath, in good condition, running hot and cold water, large, shady yard, splendid barn and outhouses, good water and six acres of land. A bargain. For terms apply to Mrs. MARTHA J. FRANCIS, Doanbrooke Hotel, Cleveland, Ohio.

Recorder Hawkins has issued the following marriage licenses since our last report:

Willie Marlow and Annie Moyer of Edgehill.

Gilbert G. Seal and Chessie Green of Brunot.

Dock Bone and Mrs. Mary Hasty of Ironton.

Rainie Light and Audrie Partney of Ironton.

The trial of Sank Robinson, negro, charged with the murder of Orville Farmer, a white man, in Poplar Bluff early in March, resulted in a mistrial in the Butler county circuit court last week, seven of the jurors being for conviction and five for acquittal. Robinson was brought here for safe keeping directly after the commission of the murder.

Wm. and Arthur Bethel of Arcadia, who have been serving a five year sentence in the Missouri penitentiary for burglary, were paroled Wednesday of last week. They had served about two years of their term, having been sentenced at the April term, 1920, of the Iron county circuit court on the charge of burglarizing the summer residence of Geo. W. Clarkson in Arcadia.

Bonne Terre Star-Register: "The attendance at the opening ball game of the season was a splendid one. The game was very good and very interesting to the large audience. The weather being ideal every one was able to enjoy the game to the utmost. The score was 2 to 1 in favor of the Arcadia Valley team. The Bonne Terre boys do not feel discouraged over their defeat as they played a very good game."

Mr. Frank B. Nuderscher, noted artist of St. Louis, and family have arrived with their household effects in Arcadia. In a few days they expect to be domiciled in their remodeled home, recently purchased from Mr.

Chas. Eldracher. Mr. Nuderscher will be absent several weeks this summer, as he will be employed painting a panel, 9x16 feet, in our State Capitol.

What the people have always asked for—we have it. A Pure Soda, made under Perfect Sanitary Conditions. Do not confuse ours with others, as the Pure Soda is an entirely new product and is made to sell because of its quality. The first impression will show you the difference. We have the best of locations, all new equipment and absolutely the purest of water.

THE PURITY SODA COMPANY, Arcadia, Mo.

The Hope Chest, with all its contents, will be on display at the Academy Theatre, Saturday night, April 29. Every one attending the show will receive five full votes. The Chest will be given to the girl receiving the most votes. The following girls have entered the contest and are named in the order of their standing: Hazel Evans, Blanche Evans, Vera Austin, Lillian Allers, Minnie Robinson, Daisy Bramhall, Pearl Medcalfe, Consuelo Christoph.

In our announcement column this week will be found the name of Judge Sam M. Brewster as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Probate Judge of Iron County. Judge Brewster has held this important office the past four years and most satisfactorily and efficiently has he discharged its duties. Frequently intricate legal questions come up before the probate judge for disposition and the position is primarily one requiring knowledge of the law. Judge Brewster fully meets the requirements. He respectfully asks consideration of his claims.

Vox Arcadiensis: "Since the recent visit of Mr. Wm. D. McKee, of the Missouri State Board of Agriculture, who gave the Faculty and Students a very instructive lecture on 'Agriculture in its General Aspect' some of the girls have determined to become farmerettes. We hardly think that the peaches that hang on the garden gate can compare to those that hang on the trees, but those three and a half inch strawberries, not to speak of the frying of juicy lamb chops and the previous racing stunts of Mary's little lamb, have captivated us and we long to go back on the farm."

A birthday party was given at the home of Mrs. C. Collins, Ironton, Sunday, April 23, 1922, in honor of her little granddaughter, Mary Virginia Robertson's, fourth birthday. Six little maidens from four to five years of age gathered to celebrate this occasion. Many interesting "little folks" games were played after which refreshments of ice cream, cake and lemonade were served. The table was beautifully decorated with many kinds of flowers, while in the center of the table was a small, snow white cake with four burning candles. At five o'clock the little guests departed declaring they had had a lovely time and no words were necessary to tell what a lovely time Mary Virginia had; for her happy little face told it all. Those present were Helen Mae Eastman, Clara Mae Boardman, Sadie Jane Fletcher, Drucilla Sue Tong, Ruth Wilson, Genevieve Lovelace.

Mrs. Martha J. Francis writes the editor an interesting letter from Cleveland, Ohio. Among other things she says: "I am glad to read the REGISTER every week. Especially this winter it has been a boon, for the condition of my eyes has prevented anything but a very limited correspondence with my friends at home. I am glad to note signs of improvement in the valley. It behooves us all to keep step with the times, even though we grow dizzy; marvelous developments and wonderful inventions—born over-night, it seems. I note in your paper of this week that Mr. W. D. Fletcher has bought the Potter farm—my girlhood home. I am glad it has fallen into the hands of an old friend and villager. If he builds a residence there I am sure he will locate it near the wonderful spring which I shall never forget, even though the distance was painful. My mind—the sub-conscious one—psychologists tell me, is now running riot with incidents which this news item dug up."

The years—they pass, they mark the changes, then.

The years—they rest, they're ours to hold sweet memories in.

E. J. Brewer, a former Iron county lad, has been Collector of St. Francois county the past four years. In referring to Mr. Brewer's candidacy for election this is what the Flat River News, a Republican paper, says about him: "Mr. E. J. Brewer, the present incumbent of the office of County Collector is a candidate to succeed himself and has asked us to inform the Democratic voters that he will very much appreciate being given the customary second term. Mr. Brewer was for many years an employee of the M. & B. T. Railway before he assumed the duties of the office of collector. He has been efficient in the discharge of the duties of his office and has been uniformly courteous with all who had business with him in connection with the payment of their taxes. About the only thing wrong with Ed Brewer so far as we have been able to see, is that he is a Democrat, but apparently this has not been any handicap to him so far. Taking everything by and large, we predict Ed will have to be reckoned with so far as the office of collector is concerned. The man who tackles him in this race will know he has been somewhere before the votes are counted next November."

W. A. Curtis, an Iron county boy who has held a position at the Missouri penitentiary for the past twenty years, has incurred the displeasure of the Hyde administration and is about to lose his job. The following is reproduced from the Missouri State Journal of April 22: "W. A. Curtis, record clerk at the State Prison, has been advised that the Board of Penal Institutions has secured a suitable Republican, W. J. Mason, of Springfield, to take his place and has been allowed until May 15th to instruct Mr. Mason in the work. Much amusement was shown Monday when it was said that Mr. Curtis had been given notice of his discharge some days before the time for the ax to fall. In the past the Board has acted without delay and has notified men of their discharge as they passed out of the gate at night. It is thought Mr. Curtis is going to be permitted to remain for thirty days because of the fact that his duties are such that a green man can not handle them without instruction. It was reported yesterday that Mr. Curtis had been informed that he would be permitted to remain in the employ of the Board if he would sever his connection with the Democratic County Committee. Mr. Curtis has been at the penitentiary for many years. He came here from Iron county. Some say the result of the city election on April 4th, when Mr. Curtis was re-elected as a Democratic candidate to the City Council resulted in his being dismissed at this time."

The entire plant of the Democrat-News at Fredericktown was completely wiped out by fire which was discovered at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. The Democrat-News was well equipped and loss is large, only partially covered by insurance. Cause of fire unknown.

If you are run down, discouraged and out of heart, get a bottle of Tanlac and see how different it makes you feel. Arcadia Valley Drug Co.—Adv.

Mr. Fink of the Pioneer Coopers Company was down from St. Louis a few days of the past week looking over the wreckage from the recent cyclone. He announces the camp will be rebuilt.

Mrs. J. O. Campbell is improving rapidly, but the nurse will remain a while yet. Miss Jenna Logan has returned to her classes in music in St. Louis and Warrenton, having been at the bedside of Mrs. Campbell for the most part of four weeks.

Mrs. G. V. Boring and little sons, of Ironton, spent Thursday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Boring.

Mrs. H. L. Bell of Ironton spent Thursday and Friday here.

Misses Alice and Mae Price entertained the Library Club Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston McColl of Annapolis visited Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McColl the past week.

One of the best school entertainments we ever had the pleasure to attend was that on last Friday evening which marked the close of a very successful term of school taught by principal G. W. Farrar and primary Miss Emma Townsend. The pupils acquitted themselves in a most creditable manner which reflected due credit upon the teachers. Five received Certificates of Attendance.

Misses Marie Chambers and Maude Hogg received the Eighth Grade Diplomas. At the close Mr. Farrar gave a very fitting talk on education, emphasizing the urgent need of a high school in Bellevue Valley. Truly, we can not afford to neglect the boys and girls. The shy little girl and the barefoot boy of today are the women and men tomorrow. Let's stand by them.

Mr. and Mrs. James Edmonds and son, Russell, of Bismarck, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Russell.
